Tuesday - 26 January 1971

- 25X1 1. [] Talked to Jim Lowenstein, Consultant, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, who said that he and Richard Moose, of the Committee staff, plan to meet Ambassador Tasca in Geneva on Sunday, 31 January after which they will proceed to Athens the same day.

25X1A [] Lowenstein was particularly grateful for the Agency briefing on Greece which he received Friday, 22 January.

25X1B

- 25X1 3. [] Called Charles Kendrick, Administrative Assistant to Senator Peter H. Dominick (R., Colo.), by way of followup to my earlier conversation with him about rules on the part of Colorado State tax authorities with respect to the tax status of annuities paid under the CIARDS. Kendrick said he didn't think they had anything definitive on this as yet, but said he would check and call me back.

- 25X1 25X1A 4. [] Mr. George Milstead, Administrative Assistant to Representative Robert E. Jones (D., Ala.), called to request an employment interview for [] After talking to Mr. W.

25X1A [] Personnel, I advised Mr. Milstead an appointment had been scheduled for [] at 2:00 p.m., 27 January.

25X1 5. [] Stuart P. French, Special Assistant to the Assistant Secretary of Defense for International Security Affairs, called about the travel of Moose and Lowenstein, Foreign Relations Committee staff, to Greece. French said Defense has also received a letter from Chairman Fulbright asking for Defense's cooperation on this trip. French said he understood the Agency had briefed Moose and Lowenstein and was interested in any information we could give him about the purposes of their travel. Mr. Maury talked with French about our briefing and told him what he knew about the trip.

25X1 6. [] Met with Mr. Ralph Preston, House Appropriations Committee staff, who told me that the Committee membership of 31 Democrats and 20 Republicans could remain relatively unchanged for the coming session of Congress. In any event, changes in the Democrat/Republican makeup should not affect either the Defense 25X1 Subcommittee or the handling of Agency matters. I briefed Mr. Preston

25X1 7. [] In response to his call, I met with Senator Jack Miller (R., Iowa) who asked if I could give him a reading on the Inter-American Social Development Institute that was established last summer. Senator Miller has a lifelong acquaintance with unusual qualifications that the Senator would like to recommend to the Institute. 25X1A After checking with [] Division, I told the Senator that the Agency has no association with the Institute (that we have stayed away from such activities since the Katzenbach recommendations were adopted by the White House some four years ago) and gave him the names of Mr. Irving Tragen, State Department, who is Chairman of the Institute, and Mr. George Lodge, the Executive Director. Senator Miller was most appreciative.
